Chapter 1 by YuJin

There was a casual conversation between Catie and Kristine.

"Hey! How have you been? I brought a story that you'll be super-interested to. This is about the Boy Devil. I've seen he's pushing someone to kill another. I don't know who he has pushed to do so but- I know that he has been so and- yeah."

"He always does so. I hate him."

"You should, you should. Next time he brings a gun as like yesterday, I'll say teacher that he did bring a gun right away!"

But the problem is that the teacher knows he doesn't have a gun. She has confirmed it twice randomly before. He was passive each time- well, one would say he was 'passively enthusiastic' about something! He maybe secretly liked her touch or to prove he's no more a suspected person. He was suspected in his middle school, too. He was, in fact sometimes, intoxicated with weed during class. Next day he was crying in class. Next day, he was ousted. He moved to another school. He told the principal that he had used weed and he needed some help. The principal sent him to an after-school drug prevention program.

One day, the students spread a rumor about him that his whole family is under huge influence of illegal substances. It expanded. He was a kind of producer. Some boys and girls of a variety of grades and wealth came to him and gave a small amount of money to bring some weed. He was, in his perception, forced to get those to them. He bought a good amount of weed somehow but
